POWERFUL, CATHOLIC SPAIN DECLARED AIM OF GENERAL MOLA

FRENCH POLITICAL CLASHES
Shots Fired Following Meeting
Of New Social Party
Lyons, To-day.
Several shots were fired and a number of people wounded in clashes between supporters of the Rightists and Leftists after a meeting of the Social Party, which is a new organisation composed mainly of followers of the recently dissolved Croix de Feu.—Reuter.

NEW LOCARNO MEETING
Eventual Date Still Undecided
PRELIMINARY DIPLOMATIC NEGOTIATIONS
London, To-day.
The preliminary diplomatic preparations for the proposed meeting of the Locarno Powers to which the Foreign Secretary, despite his recent enforced absence from his department, has been giving constant attention since his return from his holiday, are now making progress. A communique of July 23 envisaged the early opening of negotiations for a new agreement to take the place of the Rhine Pact of Locarno, as the first business in the programme for the consolidation of peace by means of a general settlement achieved by the free co-operation of all the Powers concerned. The communique declared that steps should be taken to arrange a five-Power meeting as soon as it could conveniently be held, and there was speculation at the time whether it would assemble before the opening of the League Assembly.

LOCARNO TALKS
Italy Wants Proper
Preparations
Rome, To-day.
In reply to the British Government's proposal that the Locarno Conference should be held in the second half of October, the Italian Government says that it considers it necessary that the conversations should be preceded by adequate diplomatic preparations.

5-POWER MEETING
London Naval Treaty
Discussed
London, To-day.
A meeting took place at the Foreign Office yesterday between representatives of the United Kingdom, Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden.
As in the case of the similar discussions which have recently taken place with Russia, Germany and Poland, the meeting considered the terms of the London Naval Treaty of 1936 and the applicability of the treaty to the navies of the four countries.
The discussion centred chiefly on technical questions and good progress was made. The next meeting will take place to-morrow morning.—British Wireless Service.

McMAHON TO APPEAL
Alleged Misdirection Of Jury By Judge
London, To-day.
McMahon's solicitor states that an appeal will be lodged to-day against his conviction on a charge of producing near the person of His Majesty the King a pistol with intent to alarm His Majesty, on the ground that the judge mis-directed the jury when he said that McMahon's story had been told at the Old Bailey for the first time, whereas McMahon claims that he told the same story to the War Office months ago.
McMahon was sentenced to 12 months' hard labour.

UNIFICATION OF CHINA
KWANGSI OFFICIALS IN NEW POSTS
PAKHOI SITUATION EASED
[From A Special Correspondent]
Canton, To-day.
To-day is the day for the general unification of the Republic of China. At 8 o'clock this morning Generals Li Chung-jen and Pei Chung-hsi and Mr. Huang Ko-chai assumed their newly appointed positions at Nanning as Pacification Commissioner of Kwangsi. Member of the Standing Committee of the Military Affairs Commission, and Chairman of the Kwangsi Provincial Government respectively. The former 4th Group Army of Kwangsi and the 19th Route Army are joining forces, to be known as the 5th Route Army, of which General Li Chung-jen is concu-rently Commander-in-Chief. As Kwangsi is a poor mountainous province, it will be supported by the Central Government with a grant of $3,000,000 (National currency) per month as from to-day.
General Li Chung-jen has instructed General Yung Chaowoon, now at Pakhoi, to evacuate the place, and the evacuation will be concluded before next Sunday. General Yu Hon-mow has instructed Divisional Commander Tam Sui to garrison the place to succeed General Yung, so that the Japanese and Chinese representatives can investigate the circumstances of the death of the Japanese druggist there. General Tsai Ting-kai went to Kwang-chowwan by air yesterday, and he will come to Hong Kong from there. Hence the Pakhoi situation has eased appreciably.

NETHERLANDS PARLIAMENT
State Opening By
The Queen
CAREFUL FINANCIAL POLICY
NECESSARY
"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL
The Hague, To-day.
Queen Wilhelmina opened Parliament yesterday with the traditional Speech from the Throne. After thanking the Dutch people for the sympathy they had taken in the engagement of Princess Juliana, the Queen declared that the Government would continue its strenuous efforts to overcome the unemployment crisis and would try to eliminate the difficulties which were now hampering industrial production.
The Queen went on to point out that the state of the public finances still gave rise to some anxiety, and that an extremely careful financial policy was necessary. The conditions in the Dutch Colonies, except in Curacao, were still far from satisfactory from the economic and financial points of view.
The opening of Parliament was attended by the customary splendid pageantry, the Queen and Princess Juliana driving in a golden State carriage from the Palace to Parliament through densely crowded streets.—Trans-Ocean Service.

4,000 Apply For Ten Vacancies
Canton, Later: A tremendous number of civil servants have been thrown out of work since the Nanking Government has taken over the management of Kwangtung, and it is interesting to learn that Mr.
Huang Mow-chung has been generous enough to allow 10 vacancies for the lowest grade of junior clerk in his office of the Provincial Government to be decided by public examination.
The number of applicants for these 10 vacancies is nearly four thousand!
The development of Wham-poa port is the result of the consultation of Mr. Chang Kan-gau with the Generalissimo.
Mr. Tseng Yang-pu, the Mayor of Canton, has been appointed to draft out the detailed programmes of this work, in accordance with the outline already fixed at the consultation.
The first stage will be to buy all the necessary private-owned lands, the second stage will be to widen and deepen the river, as well as to build business and residence houses and wharves, and the third stage will be to develop the different industries.

WEATHER REPORT
An anti-cyclone covers China, and a depression is situated to the north of Hokkaido. The forecast for to-day, as issued by the Royal Observatory this morning, was North and north-east winds, moderate; fine to cloudy.

General Emilio Mola, above, commander of the Northern Army of the insurgents in the Spanish civil war, has declared in a speech that "after the conquest" the new Spain will be run by the military, to form a united,
Catholic country, with the restitution of its old place in the world.

HUGE EMPIRE

BROADCAST
London, To-day.
Six Empire Prime Ministers, those of Britain, South Africa, Canada,
New Zealand, Australia and South Rhodesia, from their respective capitals participated in a worldwide broadcast hook-up yesterday afternoon, at the opening of the gigantic Empire Exhibition at Johannesburg, which is expected to attract 3,000,000 visitors. The scope of the exhibition includes the world's largest open-air theatre, equipped with the largest stretch
of scenery ever painted.
The Governor-General of the Union of South Africa, the Earl of Clarendon, during the opening ceremony read a message from His Majesty the King, expressing his best wishes for the success of the great undertaking, which would help to promote the trade and commerce of the Empire.—Reu-

"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL
Munich, To-day.
The Chinese Ambassador to Germany, H.E. Dr. Chen Tienfang, who arrived here for a visit, was received yesterday by the Mayor of Munich, Herr Fiehler, who, in welcoming the Ambassador, said that he hoped the present close friendship between Germany and China might be maintained and extended in the future.
The Ambassador will stay in Munich for two days and then proceed to the Upper Bavarian Mountains for a visit lasting several days.—Trans-Ocean Ser-

ABORTIVE RED MUTINY
Hendaye: An abortive mutiny of some 800 men of the Marxist forces in Bilbao occurred last week, as reported here yesterday. The mutineers intended to leave Bilbao on Friday to join the insurgents, but, owing to some leakage, the plan became known and the would-be traitors were arrested.—Trans-

MILITARY RULE IS FORESHADOWED
FORMER PLACE IN SUN
TO BE RESTORED
ANOTHER BRITISH VESSEL STOPPED
Burgos, To-day.
A speech delivered in confident tones by General Mola yesterday promised a new future for Spain. He asserted that the generation which helped to lose the colonial empire passed its time in fruitless lamentations, justifying its errors by sophistry.
The present enthusiasm of the youthful volunteers was to make a united, strong, Catholic Spain and give her the place in the world which she occupied at the time of the Catholic conquest. General Mola warned the country that after the conquest the work of reconstruction must be done by the military, on account of its character and knowledge of the problems to be faced.—Reuter.

LILLE STRIKE POSITION
Situation Becomes Easier ARBITRATION AWARD BY
GOVT. POSSIBLE
Paris, To-day.
The situation in the textile strike at Lille is easier and a meeting of delegates from a number of factories have agreed to accept the offer of the employers and decided to return to work immediately, while the fears of a general strike appear to have been dispelled by the refusal of the Textile Union du Nord to consider the extension of the strike to other industries in the north.
M. Leon Blum, the Premier,
M. Salengro, the Minister of Interior, and M. Chautemps, Minister of Labour, will receive delegations of the employers and employees of the Lille district successively to-day, when it is hoped that the Government will be able to make an arbitration award.—Reuter.

CENTRAL EUROPE

LITTLE ENTENTE
SOLIDARITY
COMPLETE HARMONY IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS
"CHINA MAIL" SPECIAL
Prague, To-day.
The conference of the Permanent Advisory Committee of the Little Entente at Bratislava showed a harmony prevailing between the three States in matters of policy so complete that even the special relations prevailing between the members and outside Powers were fully approved by the other members of the Little Entente, the paper Ceske Slovo says.
The paper says that this particularly applied to the relations of Czechoslovakia with Soviet Russia. "The dynamic character of the Little Entente is signified by the very fact that a certain elasticity prevails in the relationship of the individual members of the Little Entente with outside Powers. Thus it becomes possible that Czechoslovakia draws Soviet Russia closer to the Little Entente, while Rumania and Yugoslavia do the same with Italy and Germany respectively."

ITALY'S PARTICIPATION IN LEAGUE COUNCIL
Rome, To-day.—The question of Italy's participation in the forthcoming session of the League Council is not yet decided, according to well-informed quarters here, which state that the decision will largely depend upon whether Abyssinia will again be represented by a delegation.—

A conspiracy against the life shot.—Reuter.

PRESS ATTACKS ON GERMANY
Echo Of Herr Hitler's
Speech
CHANCES OF SETTLEMENT
MORE REMOTE
Moscow, To-day.
Herr Adolf Hitler's denunciation of Bolshevism has led to bitter press attacks on Germany.
The Izvestia describes the Nuremberg Congress as an attempt to intimidate and blackmail foreign States, and ridicules Herr Hitler's covetous reference to the Ukraine, the Ural Mountains and Siberia.
The paper accuses the Nazis of aiming at disrupting the system of the collective security of Europe.
BRITISH OPINION
London: British circles are not unduly perturbed by Herr Hitler's denunciation of Bolshevism, which is felt to be designed principally for home consumption.
Nevertheless, the chances of a European settlement are regarded as more remote, though it is pointed out that Herr Hitler's declaration of inability to make a pact with Bolshevism, while it seems to exclude any Russo-German bilateral agreement, does not necessarily exclude German participation in multilateral agreements to which Russia is also a party.—Reuter.

BRITISH FOOD
Purer
Nutritive Value Being Studied
London, To-day.
Sir Kingsley Wood, Minister of Health, speaking yesterday at Plymouth on the problem of nutrition, said that the consumption of food of all kinds in the United Kingdom had grown considerably.
To-day it was probably over 25-000,000 tons yearly. The consumption of dairy products and of eggs, fruit and vegetables, so important to good nutrition, had greatly increased. There had undoubtedly been at the same time a considerable improvement in the food standard, which had been achieved largely by the health authorities and their professional advisers.
Sixty years ago some 15,000 samples only were submitted annually to public analysis, and over 19 per cent. were found to be adulterated or not up to standard.
Last year over 143,000 samples were submitted—the highest on record—and the percentage of adulterated or not up to standard was only a little over five per cent.—British Wireless Service.

HONG KONG HOCKEY CLUB NOT WEAKENED THROUGH LOSSES

ED-DA ROZA

Ed-da Roza, above, will be a notable absentee from the Colony Diving Championship which takes place next Saturday night at the Victoria Recreation Club.

FOOTBALL CLUBS

POLICE WILL BE WITHOUT CHRIS PILE

But Retain Rest Of Senior Team

STEVENS MAY PLAY CRICKET

(By "REFEREE")

The Police senior football team, for two years in succession runners-up in both the League and Senior Shield, are extremely fortunate in that that they will be able to field practically the same team this season, as last, and, under the able management of Sub-Inspector Brittain, himself an old campaigner, their prospects are again rosy.

The only loss the Police will sustain is C. Pile, their interposition, who will be proceeding on home leave soon and, though it has not yet been decided who will take his place, it is almost definite that it will be a reserve.

Johnson and Gough can both fill the position, but their inclusion there would mean a re-shuffling of the other positions, which is not desirable. Brittain, who generally plays as a half-back and Greig, from the second team, are the most likely candidates for the position.

Parker Resting

Parker, who had been in indifferent health for some time, has now recovered, but will not be playing yet, and until he plays his position will be filled by Brooks, the new captain.

The intermediate line will probably be the strongest department of the team. With Gough, in the pivotal position, and North and Brooks on the flanks, this trio compares very favourably with other senior half-back lines in the Colony. McHardy will be in goal, and Blackburn will be the other back. Perkins, who returned to the Colony during the close season, may also be available for goalkeeper, if required.

Many Forwards

The Police have never been better off at forward than this year, for they have the whole of last year's line complete, and in addition Bone and Green, Morrison, a newcomer, who played a few games at the end of last season, is also available.

The only doubtful one is Stevens, their inside-right, who has been ill for some time and who has expressed a desire to play cricket this season. He is at present with the Revenue Department and has been approached by two other Clubs, but he has stated that if he does play football this season it will definitely be for the Police.

Johnson will lead the forwards again this year, while the wingers will be T. Pile and G. C. Moss. The inside forwards will probably be Stevens and Green.

It is unfortunate that Pope, a useful forward, will be playing cricket this season. He is badly needed by the soccer section of the Club, and it is possible that he may turn out for several years.

LAWRENCE RETAINS 100 YDS. TITLE

LAU PO-HEI'S VICTORY IN BACK-STROKE

L. K. CHAN WINS THROWING POLO BALL

(By "Crawl")

ONLY one record was shattered at the opening of the Colony annual swimming championships in the Victoria Recreation Club pool yesterday evening when Lau Po-hei, the brilliant University and Interport champion, broke his own Interport record of 69 secs. by a fifth of a second and Lawrence's Colony mark by three-fifths of a second, to beat the latter by two yards in a race full of incident.

Wilfred Lawrence made the first serious mistake in his swimming career in the 100 Yards free-style championship, which he again won, when he covered the first 50 yards in the phenomenal time of 25.3-5 secs. and was unable to finish strongly, just reaching the wall a stroke ahead of Norman Lee, of South China, who recorded his best time to date.

Chan Lui-ki, of the Chinese Bathing Club won the Throwing Polo Ball championship "on the post" so to speak when he beat Frank Read (Y.M.C.A.) by five inches, with his last throw. Read having reached 71 ft. 7 ins. with his final effort. The third best effort by Cpl. McCarthy, of the East Lanes, was near 68 feet.

In addition to the Colony championships, the V.R.C. held their Junior quarter-mile championship, which was won easily by Lieut. J. M. Calvert, R.E., from N. Nolasco da Silva and J. de Souza.

Lee's Unlucky Turn

The 100 Yards freestyle saw Lawrence take an early lead from Norman Lee, but he fouled his turn, giving the latter a chance to catch up, and the remainder of the race saw these two swimming level all the way with the exception of the last turn, when Norman Lee almost turned a complete circle, swimming into Ozorio, who had not yet reached the turn. This greatly changed the aspect of the race. Lee might quite easily have won the event had he turned properly.

Lawrence's spurt in the first 50 yards undoubtedly ruined his race as he was left without the necessary energy to pull himself safely clear of his rival in the last 10 yards, and it was only settled by a touch!

Not A Surprise

Lau Po-hei, the Interport backstroke record holder, did not surprise me when he won the 100 Yards back-stroke title—I expected it after Lawrence had swum a strenuous 100 Yards free-style some 20 to 30 minutes earlier.

Nevertheless, Lau Po-hei was severely handicapped, as he was not allowed to turn on his side in case he should infringe. (The rule states that a back-stroke swimmer must not take a stroke until he is on his back). So he turned in the old method on his back and, in spite of not performing this turn for at least two seasons, he managed to pull away from Lawrence in the last 25 yards to win in record time. Lau "fouled" his second turn, otherwise he might have broken 67 seconds, but it must also be said, in fairness to Lawrence, that he too "fouled" his turn at the 50-yard mark.

Results were:—

Colony 100 Yards free-style:—

1. W. Lawrence (V.R.C.)

2. N. Lee (S.C.A.A.)

3. E. Hamilton (R.U.R.)

Also swam: H. L. Ozorio, Wong Chi-hung.

V.R.C. 40 Yards Junior championship:—

1. Lieut. J. M. Calvert (R.E.)

2. N. Nolasco da Silva

3. J. de Souza

Time: 6 mins. 2 secs.

Members "C" Class: 50 Yards backstroke Handicap:—

1. J. R. Remondos

2. F. Simonsen

Time: 46 secs.

Colony Throwing Polo Ball Championship:—

1. Chan Lui-ki (C.R.C.)

Distance: 72 feet.

2. F. V. Reid (Y.M.C.A.)

W. LAWRENCE FAVOURED TO WIN 880 YDS.

Keen Battle In Ladies' Classic

OPEN RELAY SHOULD BE EXCITING

(By "CRAWL")

Following yesterday's thrilling swimming in the 100 Yards free-style and the 100 Yards back-stroke championships of the Colony in the Victoria Recreation Club pool, three good events will be seen this evening when the Ladies' 100 Yards free-style, the Men's 880 Yards free-style and the Men's 200 Yards free-style Open Relay will be featured.

Providing the Chinese swimmer is in form, I anticipated a great race between Miss Yeung Saichun, of South China, and Miss Veronica Thirwell, of the V.R.C., in the Ladies' 100 Yards championship, although on current form the latter should win.

Miss Doris Hunt and Mrs. McMahon will fight it out for third place, although it would not come as a surprise if the latter also beats the Chinese girl for second place.

New Half Mile Record?

The 880 Yards free-style championship is a certainty for Wilfred Lawrence, whose time of 11 (Continued on Page 3)

The following is today's and the remainder of the programme:

TO-DAY

Commencing 6 p.m.—

100 Yards Free Style—Ladies' Championship of the Colony.

880 Yards Free Style—Championship of the Colony.

Team Race—Open to the Colony—men, 50 yards each.

FRIDAY

Commencing 6 p.m.—

100 Yards Free Style—Boys' Championship of the Colony (15 years and under).

Long Plunge—Championship of the Colony.

220 Yards Free Style—Championship of the Colony.

SATURDAY

Commencing 9.15 p.m.—

50 Yards Free Style—Championship of the Colony.

100 Yards Breast Stroke—Championship of the Colony.

Diving—Championship of the Colony.

440 Yards Free Style—Championship of the Colony.

Distance: 71 ft. 7 ins.

3. Cpl. McCarthy.

Colony 100 Yards back-stroke:—

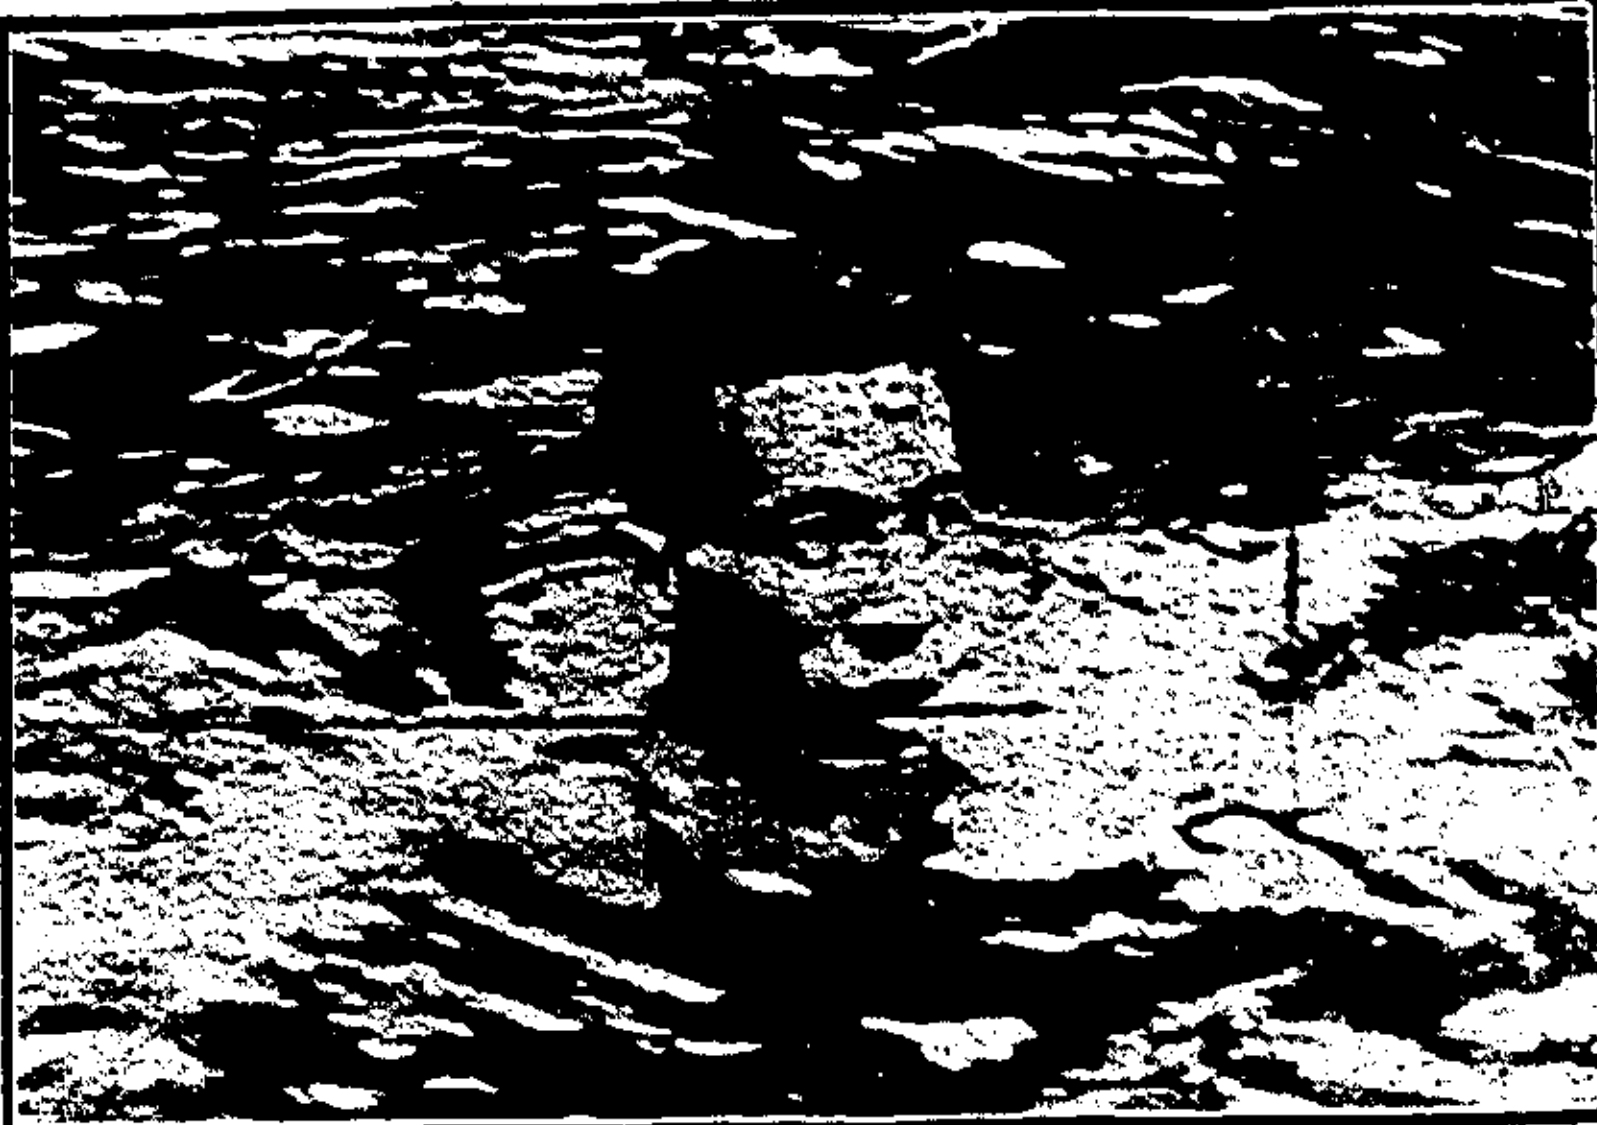

1. Lau Po-hei (University)

Time: 68.4-6 secs. (Colony record)

2. W. Lawrence (V.R.C.)

Time: 70.2-6 secs.

3. Pte. Taylor (East Lanes.)

Wilfred Lawrence, above, the Colony's brilliant swimming champion, retained his 100 Yards free-style title at the Colony Championships yesterday, when he clocked 57.3-5 secs.

LAU PO-HEI

Lau Po-hei, above, the Interport and University back-stroke champion, regained the Colony back-stroke title yesterday evening at the Victoria Recreation Club, when he clocked 68.4-6 secs. for a new record, beating Wilfred Lawrence.

NO CHANGE IN NAME

Mamak Tournament Meeting

ALTERATION OF RULES

A proposal, by Mr. L. Tyler, to change the name of the Mamak Hockey Tournament to the Hong Kong or Victoria Hockey Tournament was defeated by 5 votes to 4 at the annual general meeting held at St. Andrew's Church Hall last evening, and over which Capt. G. W. P. Kimm presided.

One important decision made at the meeting was that there would be only one division this season and that each team would play the other clubs twice. As a result of this, certain alterations had to be made to the rules which referred to the "A" and "B" Divisions of the tournament, the rules thus affected having been altered to refer to the one division only.

Just before the meeting, settled down to the business of electing officers for the season, Mr. A. E. P. Guest proposed that in view of the fact that the St. Andrew's Church Hall was always placed at their disposal, the Tournament should make a donation of $25 towards the St. Andrew's magazine fund. This was carried unanimously and the Rev. J. R. Higgs, who was present at the meeting, thanked them for the donation, but added that he had all along stated that the Hall would always be available for hockey meetings.

Election Of Officers

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

President: Lt.-Col. H. L. Marrow, D.S.O.

Vice Presidents: Rev. J. R. Higgs, M.A., Major M. H. A. Campbell, Lt. Comdr. J. E. Broome, R.N.

Chairman of the Executive: Capt. G. W. P. Kimm.

Hon. Secretary: Mr. L. Tyler.

Hon. Treasurer: Mr. N. A. E. MacKay.

Assistant Hon. Secretaries: Mr. A. E. P. Guest and Sig. Anstien.

Air Force Included

An addition to Rule 3 of the Tournament now makes provision for the Royal Air Force to enter teams in the competition, and Rule 32 was altered to read that "all matches will be played off by the 31st day of March."

SAPPERS WIN AT HOCKEY

Fusiliers Lose By Two Goals

In a friendly hockey game on the Radio ground, Caroline Hill, yesterday, the Royal Engineers beat the Royal Welch Fusiliers by 4 goals to 2, after sharing two goals at the interval.

Corner opened the scoring for the Engineers, but Roberts equalised for the Fusiliers in the second half, Collins, Woolgar and Corner scored for the Sappers, but Jones reduced the lead shortly before time.

H. OWEN-HUGHES TO PLAY AGAIN

REINFORCEMENTS FROM CENTRAL BRITISH

MANY PLAYERS TRANSFERRED

(By "Sticks")

WITH the hockey season approaching fast—the first civilian tournament commences in the first week in October—hockey Clubs are "preparing their ground" and the European Y.M.C.A., the Argonauts, the Nomads, the Radio and Royal Engineers, to mention but a few, have already had their first practice matches. The Hong Kong Hockey Club will hold their first practice this evening at King's Park.

Most of the Clubs are relying on new blood, but this had been partly counterbalanced by departures from the Colony and retirement from the game. The Navy do not get into full swing until at least a month later, as the majority of the China Fleet are still up North; but the Army teams have been playing throughout the close season.

The Hong Kong Hockey Club have lost four good players in L. Pracht, the German international, who has been transferred to Tientsin, David Nooy, who has been transferred to Batavia, and A. E. Carey, who left the Colony on transfer to Tientsin last Saturday. In addition, K. C. Wodehouse is not permanently stationed in the Colony, although there is a faint possibility that he will be here during December and January.

The Club have, however, several newcomers, including George Bond and Norman Whitley, from the Central British Association, while E. V. Reed, who did not play last season owing to pressure of work, has intimated that he will again be available.

Owen Hughes Returns

Harry Owen Hughes, who formerly played for the Club on the right-wing, but who was home on leave last season, has again placed himself at the disposal of the Club, and will probably lead their attack.

Jack Rodger has returned to the fold as captain of the side and will probably partner E. B. Reed at full-back. Jack Potter, last year's skipper, is still on leave, although he and J. L. Tetley are expected back in the Colony by January.

The first team will probably line-up with Shields or Van der Wal in goal, Jack Rodger and E. V. Reed, in the full-back division. (Continued on Page 5)

MISS A. FOWLER CAPTAIN

"Y" Ladies' Hockey Meeting

NEW COMMITTEE ELECTED

(By "STICKS")

At a meeting of the "Y" Ladies' Hockey Section yesterday evening, Miss Anne Fowler, the Interport full-back and Hon. Secretary for the past two seasons, was elected Captain for the ensuing year and also took up the Hon. Secretaryship for the third year in succession as no other lady would come forward to take the post.

The other elections were:—Vice-captain: Miss Olive Dalziel. Committee: Miss M. Westcott, Mrs. G. M. Brown, Miss E. Thompson, Miss A. Fowler, Miss O. Dalziel and Mr. G. T. Palmer (coach).

It was decided that the same uniforms that were used last season will be used again this time, while it was stated that the "Y" ground would not be available until after October.

Those present at the meeting were:—the Misses F. Fowler, L. Murray, K. Tonge, J. Lakeman, W. George, M. Westcott, S. Dalziel, E. Thompson, O. Dalziel and A. Fowler, Mrs. M. Read, Mrs. H. Wheeler, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Starbuck; Mr. G. T. Palmer (Coach) and Mr. W. T. Ashton.

Club's Soccer Captain

GEORGE HILL, the Hong Kong Football Club soccer captain, is one of the most versatile footballers in the local Football League. Born in Glasgow in 1908, he was playing for the senior team of his school at the age of 13, and not long after leaving school he was playing in the Third Division of the Glasgow League, and a year later found him in the First Division!

From 1928 to 1930 he played for the Battlefield Football Club in the Scottish Amateur League and in 1931 he joined the Dunoon Milton Rovers, a Second Division team, participating in the West of Scotland Amateur League. While at Home he played at back, but when he joined the Kowloon Football Club in 1932 he was played in several positions.

In 1933 he joined the Hong Kong Football Club, where he has been partnering S. Strange for most of the time at back, though he has also been seen among the forwards.

Hill has played for Scotland on several occasions in the "Sunday Herald" International Charity Cup Competition and in other representative games in the Colony and last year travelled with the Interport team as a reserve, as he was an especially useful all-rounder.

QUEEN'S PARK RESIGN THEIR CENTRE-FORWARD

Queen's Park Rangers have decided to retain Sam Abel, their centre-forward. He was placed on the open to transfer list last May, but was re-signed recently.

Long Island, To-day.
The sensational defeat of Hector Thomson, the British Amateur champion, in the Second Round of the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship, over the Garden City course yesterday, was the feature of the day's play. Thomson, who lost to Henry Kowal, of New York and former captain of Colgate University, by 4 and 2, was completely off his game, being four down at the ninth.

Other results were:
Roger Peacock beat Dr. Tweddell (Great Britain) 1 up, after the latter had been 2 up at the 16th.

Radolph Knepper beat Morton Dykes (Great Britain) at the 19th.

Alec Hill (Great Britain) beat C. B. Hill 3 and 2.

John Langley (Great Britain) beat Vincent Schuster 7 and 6.

Elevins beat Jess Sweetser 2 and 1.

*Johnny Goodman, American Open winner in 1933, beat Jesse Guilford 4 and 3.

David Davis beat C. Ross Somerville, Canadian champion and 1932 holder, 3 and 2.

Francis Onimet, non-playing American Walker Cup captain, beat John Biggs 5 and 3.

Jack McLean (Great Britain) beat Henry Longhurst 5 and 4.

Cecil Ewing (Great Britain) beat Winfield Day 4 and 3.

Lucas beat Leonard Martin 2 and 1.

Hoblitzell beat Gordon Peters (Great Britain) by 1 up.

Gordon Taylor (Toronto) beat Walter Emery 2 and 0.

*A. E. Campbell (Jackborough) beat B. W. H. Lehmpa 8 and 7.

*George Dunlap beat Dave Well (Richmond, Va.) 3 and 2.

Lucas will meet Campbell in the Third Round.

COTTON AND PADGHAM WIN
FIRST ROUND MATCHES

Oxhey, England, To-day.

Sixty-four players took part in the First Round of the News Of The World $1250 Professional Golf Tournament, which commenced here yesterday.

Alfred Perry, the former British Open champion, being surprisingly defeated by an unknown in Reginald Cox, of Blackpool, who won by 4 and 3.

Henry Cotton, who has experienced one of his most unlucky seasons, beat James Adams, the Romford professional, at the 20th. At one period he led by two holes, but lost his lead through several putting lapses.

Alfred Padgham, the British Open champion and the most successful prize-money winner this year, beat an unknown Welsh assistant K. Williams by 7 and 6. Padgham was three under four for 13 holes.

The only notable overseas success was recorded by the American, Joe Ezar, who beat Sam King, of Knowle Park, by 3 and 2.—Reuter.

Downman Leaving

There is no lack of talent among the junior players. Last year's players are available, with the exception of Downman, their centre-half, who goes on leave in November.

Besides the players mentioned above who may not be required for the senior team, there are several players in the junior team who displayed good form last season.

Manning will probably be in goal with Salter and Greig at full-back. Terret, Willis, Campbell, Jessop, are among those who can fill any of the half-back positions.

Guruchan Singh, the Radio triple Interport hockey player, has left the Colony for India on furlough and will be a serious loss to the Interport team.

"TICKLE" SHIELD

Great enthusiasm and keenness was shown at the first swimming gala of the newly-formed Public Works Recreation Club held at the South China Athletic Association pavilion, North Point, last night which augurs well for the future activities of the club.

All the events were keenly contested, S. A. Fowler being the outstanding swimmer and winning the President's Cup, awarded to the individual scoring the highest number of points. He also helped his department, the Crown Lands, to win the "Tickle Shield" with an aggregate of 17 points.

The water-polo game between the Chinese Bathing Club and the South China Athletic Association resulted in a win for the former by the odd goal in seven. Chan Lui-ki (3) and Tang Ho-fook scored for the C. B. C. while Norman Lee, H. Lo and Henry Young netted for the losers.

Mr. Tickle thanked the prizes Mr. P. D. Wilson, thanked Mr. A. W. G. Tickle for the interest he had taken in the Club and for presenting the Challenge Shield.

The prizes were distributed by Mrs. P. D. Wilson, wife of the President, after which she was presented with a bouquet of flowers by little Miss Chan daughter of Mr. Chan To-sui, Chairman of the Club.

The following were the results:

400 Metres Invitation Medley Relay:

1. Chinese Bathing Club, (Chan Kui-ying, Chap On-fook, Cheung Lai-kei and Chan Fook-sing), 2. South China Athletic Association.

50 Metres free-style (Championship):

SEVERAL ABNORMALLY FAT
(By "Rapid")

The new batch of subscription griffins ordered by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for the 1937 Annual Race Meeting arrived in the Colony last night by the s.s. "Sinking."

The ponies left Newchwang, Manchuria, on September 7 and travelled here via Wei-Hai-Wei, Shanghai and Amoy. There are 66 ponies in all, and they appear to have weathered the long journey without any ill effects. With the exception of one rainy day, fine weather was experienced during the voyage.

Under the supervision of Mr. S. A. Sleep, the Acting Secretary of the Jockey Club, Mr. Walker, the Acting Stable Manager, and Major F. Hoag, the Veterinary Surgeon, landing operations were successfully carried out at 7 a.m. this morning from the Hong Kong Electric Company's Wharf at North Point, the ponies being led away by a gang of stable boys, and eventually arriving at their new home without any difficulty.

There were quite a few racing enthusiasts present to witness the landing, among whom I noticed Mr. and Mrs. Kwok, Mr. Norman Deitz, Mr. W. G. Foy and Mr. Choy Wing Chin. It was the general opinion of those present that the new arrivals looked better than last year's lot, although several of them are abnormally fat, which defect will soon be removed during the next few months' training. On the whole, I believe that owners will be pleased with this year's importation, and keen racing may be anticipated at the Annual Meeting.

Lawrence will receive his greatest opposition from Lionel Rozz Pereira, the former holder, who has been concentrating on this event for the past season, and who is reported to have made great strides. The event will also be notable for the inclusion of four Army swimmers in L/Cpl. Pearce, the Army half-mile holder, and Lieut. J. M. Calvert, the runner-up, both from the Royal Engineers, and Pte. Taylor and Pte. Hulme, of the East Lancashire Regiment. The duel for second and third places will be most exciting.

V.R.C. FAVOURED

The last championship event on this evening's programme will be the 200 Yards free-style open relay, in which the V.R.C. team, which set up a new record in the heats last Monday, are expected free-style.

Lieut. E. M. Dawson, the Colony and Army hockey player, above, has left the Colony for Home and will not be available again as his Regiment, the East Lancs, leave Hong Kong next January for India.

Phosphorus Is Life

An eminent biologist once spoke of the benefits that might accrue to humanity if the world's statesmen were not politicians but biologists. Instead of setting men by the ears to kill one another he thought they might combine against the foes of mankind and attack the neglected problems that threaten the future of our species. Designs for eradicating pests and pestilences, for adjusting population to available resources, for regulating the proportions of the types of ability necessary for the welfare of our species might replace political schemes for seizing territory, markets, prestige and power. The reckless consumption of certain of the earth's resources by the whole human species presents problems too remote, it is true, for political imagination, but in the long run is of far greater moment than the mere adjustment of boundaries or the ambitious proposals of would-be Caesars. Whether men enjoy the comparative liberty of the bourgeois State or live their lives in complete subjection to a tyranny they must have, if they are to survive at all, about a pound and a half of phosphorus in their physical constitution, some three pounds of calcium, nearly four ounces of sulphur, half that amount of sodium, one-twelfth that amount of iron and so on. All these elements are sufficiently plentiful on the earth except phosphorus, which is steadily growing scarcer. Your biologist-statesman would foresee the time when the stock of phosphorus on land was reduced to such an amount that the human race would perish. He would foresee it and take steps to prevent the catastrophe.

Not merely to man, but to all living creatures, phosphorus is an indispensable element. But its scarcity would matter little if it could be conserved. Crops take it out of the soil, rivers wash it out of the land, men dump it into the sea as a constituent of sewage. In the sea there is a very little of it that is not in the bodies of marine animals. Hence some is recovered by the use of fish as food and as manure, some by the use of guano on the land to make good the deficiency caused by reaping the crops. The use also of phosphate rock as fertiliser makes available for plants and hence for animals some of the capital supply. But we are eating our capital. We may be left in the far future with large tracts of the earth's surface entirely deprived of phosphorus. Land deficient in phosphorus, if not dressed with phosphates, yields grass and crops with insufficient of this valuable element. Grass and crops of low phosphorus content will feed man and beast, but man and beast will suffer from deficiency diseases.

This was the secret, discovered by the late Sir Arnold Theiler, of the cattle disease known as lamsiekte. Cattle died in great numbers. The local distribution of the disease was attacked by lamsiekte and usually died. The farmers were taught to dose their cattle with bone meal, with the result that the beasts' desire to feed on old carcasses failed, and they were free from the danger of the picking up the disease and no more died of lamsiekte, for in spite of the deficient vegetation they got their complement of phosphorus in the form of wholesome bone meal. This happy solution to an immediate problem does not, however, answer the secular problem of bones in which the germ had flourished. The abnormal taste on the part of cows for eating skeletons seemed to be especially common in certain districts. These were found to be the regions in which the soil was poor in phosphorus. It was a house that Jack built. The poor soil supported only vegetation poor in phosphorus. The cattle fed on the vegetation of low phosphorus content. The consequent deficiency of phosphorus in the animal's system drove it to seek for bones to eat, for bones contain phosphates. If it found bones containing the noxious microbe it was attacked by lamsiekte and usually died. The farmers were taught to dose their cattle with bone meal, with the result that the beasts' desire to feed on old carcasses failed, and they were free from the danger of the picking up the disease and no more died of lamsiekte, for in spite of the deficient vegetation they got their complement of phosphorus in the form of wholesome bone meal. LESS MEAT FOR GREEKS

Two results of the temporary dictatorship which Gen. Metaxas has set up in Greece were apparent last month. One was a general rise in all Greek Government stocks, the other a decree regulating Greece's diet.

In future no meat will be sold on Wednesdays or Fridays. This actually accords with the rules of the Orthodox Church. The primary motive, however, is not religious but economic.

There has been a bad harvest in Greece, which, like so many European countries nowadays, lacks foreign exchange with which to pay for imports.

In order to release foreign exchange for buying cereals, it has been decided to restrict the import of cattle, sheep, pigs and goats for consumption.

This will not represent a great hardship. Fish and vegetables will be the natural substitutes. Plentiful supplies of that admirable fish, the red mullet, are available.

Other fish which abound and are much to the taste of the Greeks are mackerel, sole, and a species of turbot.

SPITHEAD REVIEW IN MINIATURE

CAPE TOWN MODELLERS PAY TRIBUTE TO PAST

DRAKE'S Golden Hind. Henry is well known as a builder of fast ships, racing yachts, a Chinese war junk and a modern battle-cruiser were among the strangely assorted craft reviewed in miniature recently by Vice-Admiral F. L. Tottenham, Commander-in-Chief of the Africa Station, when he was welcomed as their honorary president by members of the Model Ship Builders' and Ship Lovers' Club of Cape Town. The models were all built there.

It was an imposing fleet, representative of a wide stretch of history, but it was not by any means a complete mobilisation of the vessels of the club. Space did not permit of such a big display. There are in the club sufficient ships to make a Spithead review in miniature, and a public exhibition on the larger scale is projected.

Golden Hinds

One of the most popular ships among Cape modellers is the Golden Hind. Cape Town has a whole squadron of them. As Drake's famous flagship, the Golden Hind sailed round the world, in 1581, off Deptford, she was boarded by the great Queen Elizabeth who knighted Drake and ordered that the good ship should be preserved as a monument "not only of its owner's glory, but of that of the nation to which he belongs." All that remains, of her now is some of the planks, in the form of a chair presented by Charles II to the University of Oxford. A model exhibited was made by the Rev. Hedley Parks. He also made a model of the model: it is only 2½ inches long. Mr. W. Colclough, whose model of the Sovereign of the Seas aroused much admiration, has tackled the complicated rigging of this old masterpiece of sail in a manner which shows that he has had more than a passing acquaintance with sailing vessels. Captain Neil Campbell's small waterline models of square-rigged ships are also examples of the fine effect which an experienced seaman can get, even when working to a very small scale. Captain F. Carvlin, whose model racing yacht Altair was also admired by the Admiral,

Special Interest

Numbers of the models built by members of the club are of special South African interest. A model of Van Riebeeck's ship, the Dromedaris, is under construction. The difficulty has been to obtain an authentic picture of her. One of the models of special interest to South Africa is that of the first Carnarvon Castle, namesake of the modern motor vessel.

The old Carnarvon Castle, launched in 1867, was one of Donald Currie's East India traders. Iron-built and ship-rigged, she was a vessel of 1,200 tons, and sailed regularly from the Mersey for Calcutta at a time when sailing vessels usually waited for a full cargo before putting to sea. This model, made by Mr. J. W. Juritz, is so accurate in its detail that, photographed in its proper setting with Table Mountain in the background, it might well be taken for a picture of the original ship.

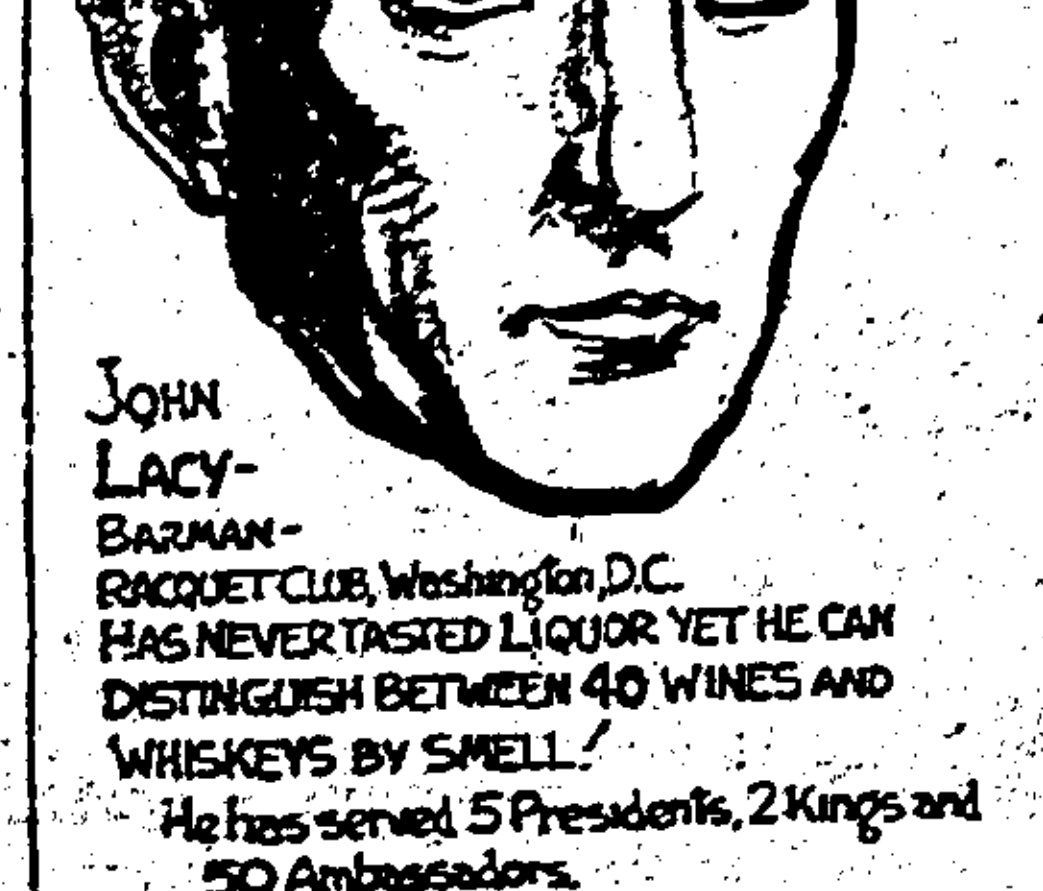

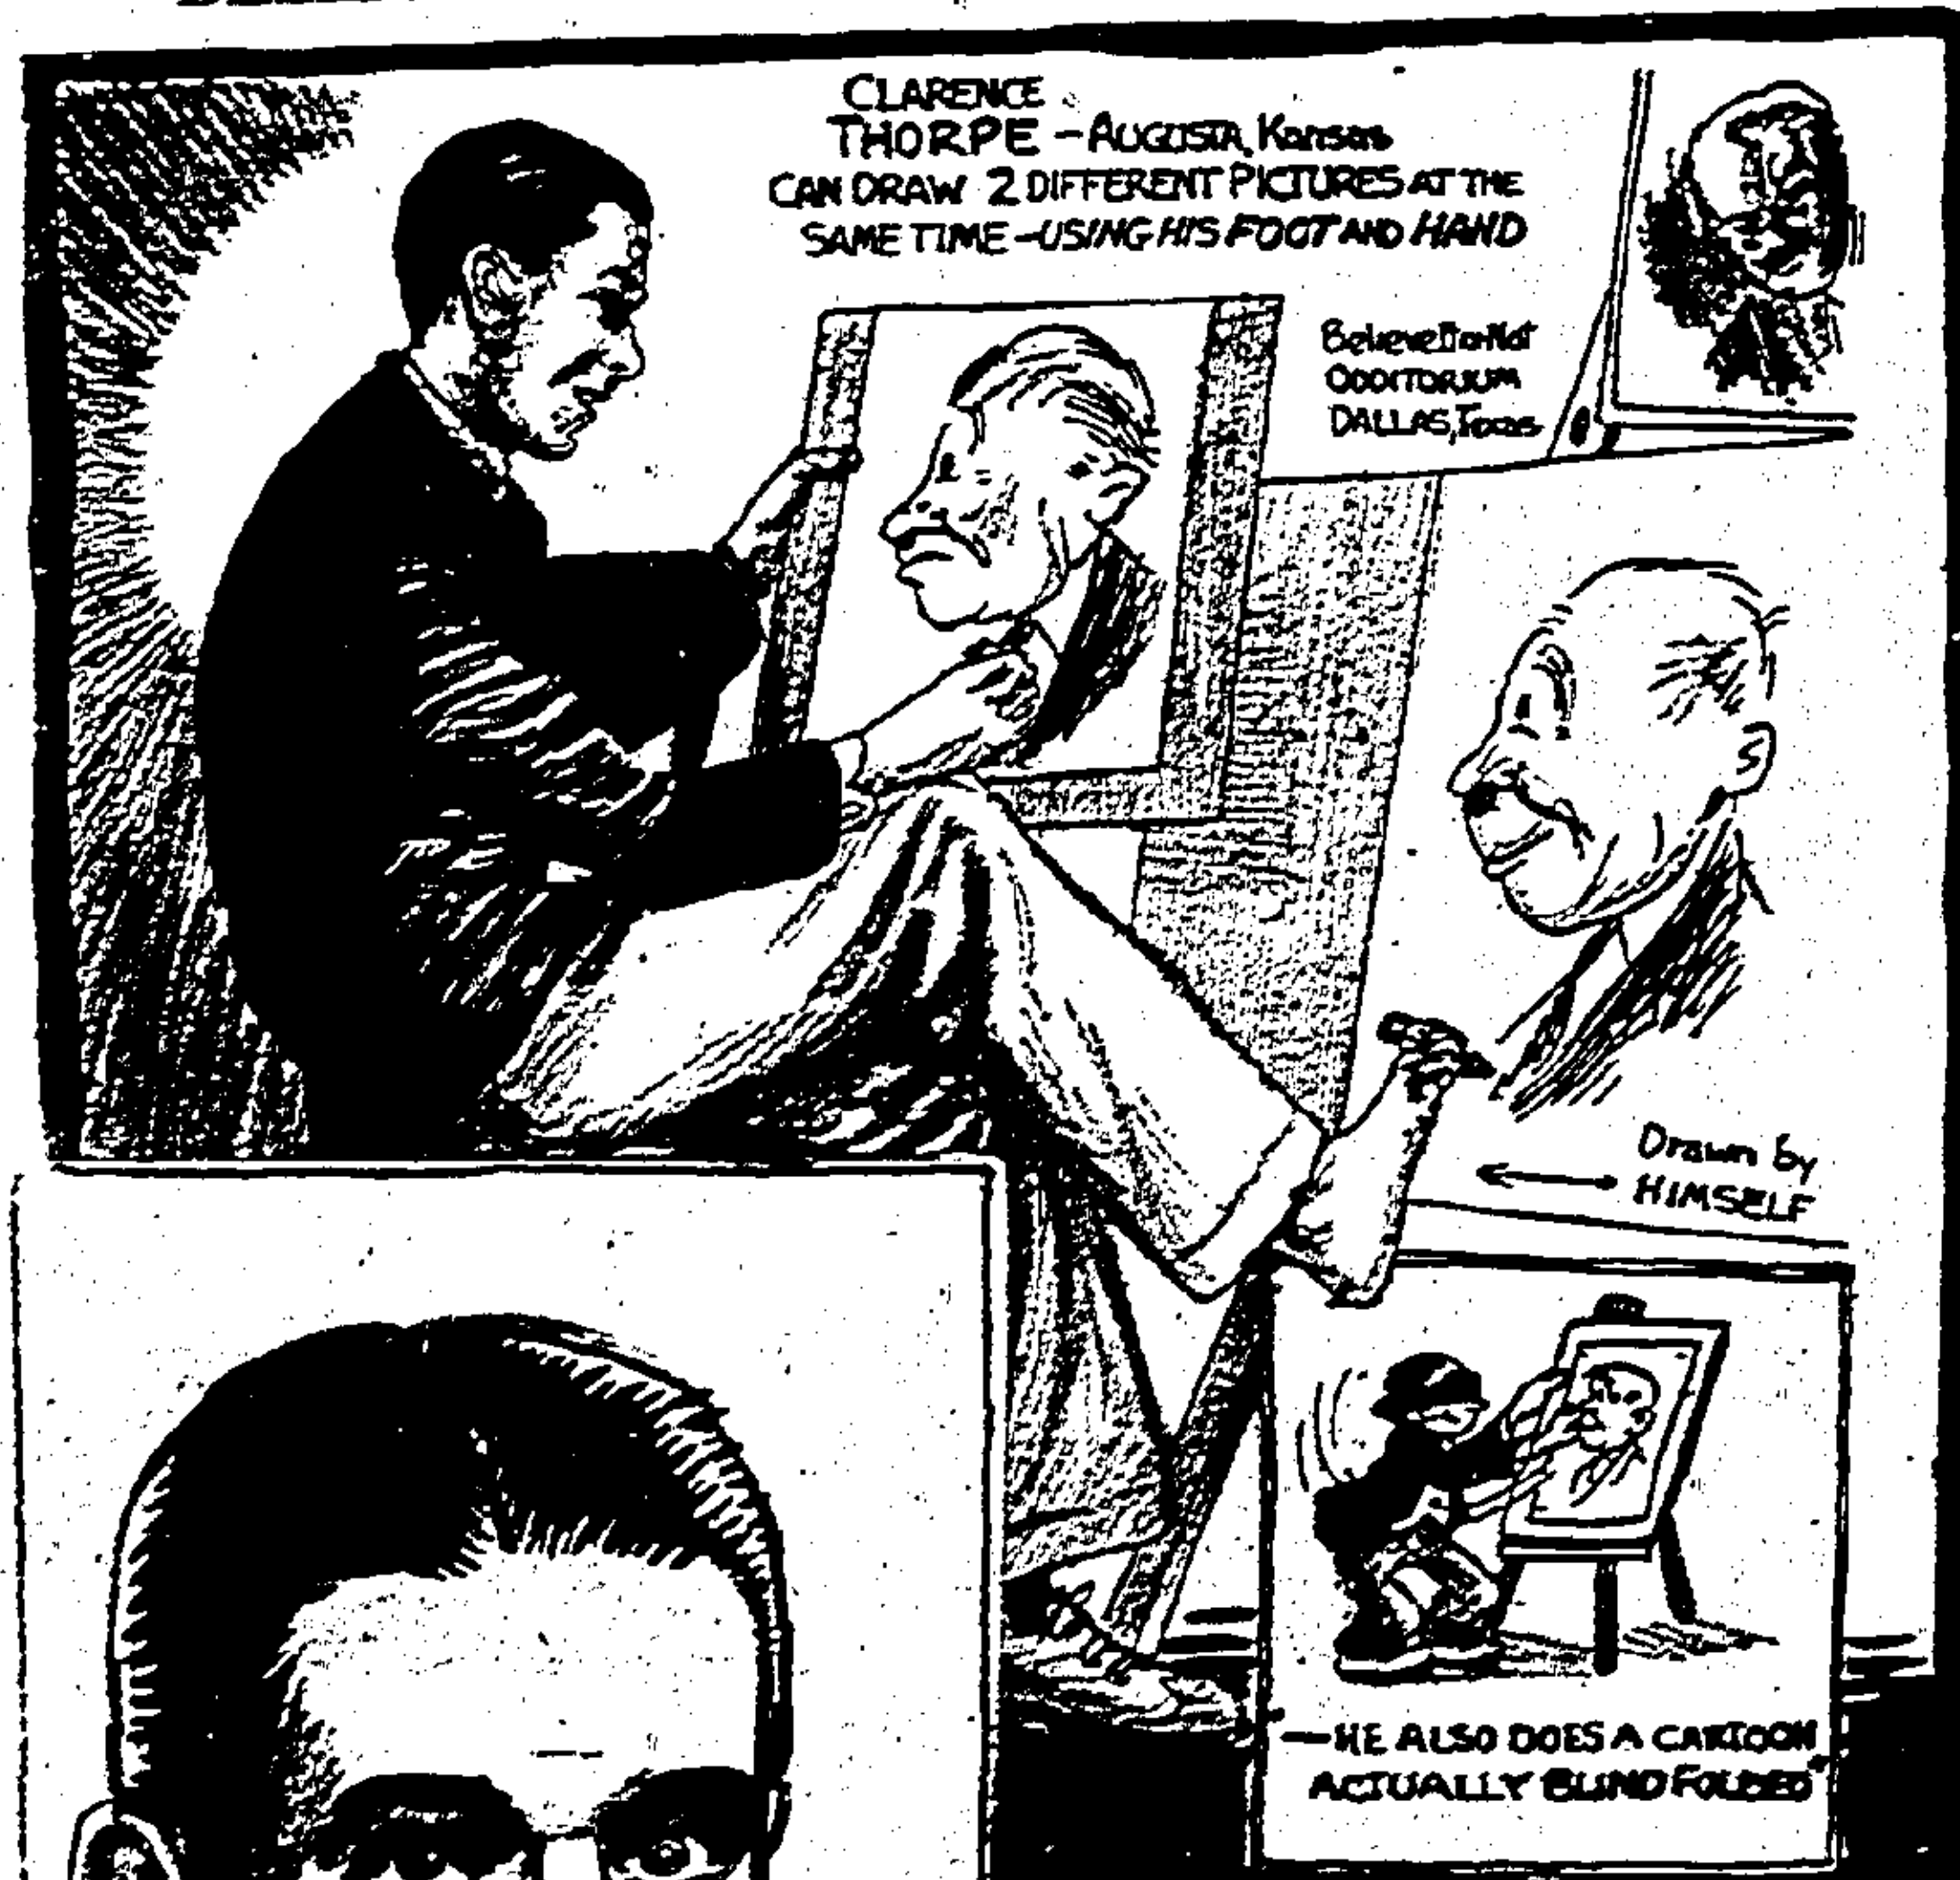

Old Luxury Ship

Mr. Juritz has also modelled the Norham Castle, a steamship of the days when auxiliary sails were carried. On her homeward passage from Cape Town in February, 1888, her engines broke down in Lat. 20° 14' deg. South, and she was put under sail, making St. Helena nine days later. Her engines were tripped and she was generally improved. It was not until 1901 that she was taken off the run and, as the Martinique, flew the French flag. She was ultimately sold to Italian ship-breakers.

A working model of the Cunarder Samaria (16,000 tons), was made by Mr. L. S. Soole, who is now engaged on a model of the Empress of Britain. H.M.S. LOCAL GIRL SECURES GOLD MEDAL AWARD

Accounting Institute
Examination

FULL LIST OF RESULTS

What must be regarded as an unusual honour in the history of Accountancy Examinations was reported to the Hong Kong Registrar of the International Institute of Accountants by air mail recently, that Miss Lau Mung Loi, a Chinese girl, born and bred in Hong Kong, won the Institute's Gold Medal for First Place Overseas in the June 1936 intermediate examinations.

Considering the large entry and the high standard required, it speaks very highly of the hard work of Miss Lau and of the coaching of her instructors in the School of Accountancy and Commerce, Kowloon, whose students have thus consistently carried off the Gold Medal since the December 1934 initial examination.

H.K. AREA ARMY SOCCER

LEAGUE ALREADY STARTED

CONCLUDING IN DECEMBER

Last Tuesday, saw the commencement of competitive football this season among military units in the Hong Kong Area Army Football League.

This League, which has superseded the old Small Units League, is being run in five divisions, three on the island and two on the mainland. In all, there are 26 teams, including all Batteries of Artillery, all Companies of Engineers and Infantry, and all the smaller units, e.g., Signals, R.A.S.C., R.A.M.C. and R.A.O.C. One feature of this League is that, in the larger units, i.e., Artillery, Engineers and Infantry, soldiers who are recognised as regular players in the First and Second Division of the H.K.F.A. League are ineligible to take part. It is hoped to complete the various divisions of the League by the end of next December. The Island and Mainland Championships will then be featured in a knockout competition and will compete in the final for the Area Championship.

PRaise FOR CHINA'S SOCCER TEAM

DEBUT MATCH IN ENGLAND

WONG AT HIS BEST

London, August 16.
Last evening the Arsenal club had the pleasure of introducing to a London crowd China's artistic and nimble Soccer football team, several of whom had taken part in the recent Olympic Games at Berlin. Our visitors had for opposition a strong side of the Islington Corinthians, who played seven amateur internationals.

Clothed in blue and white and terminating their sartorial get-up with flaming red stockings, the young men of China—average age about 25—stood gravely in line opposite their foes while the two national anthems were played, and the music had scarcely died away when the Tourists amazed the crowd by opening the score.

The movement was so amazingly clever in its combination that one soon began to realise why China had run England so close in Berlin. Their early success, moreover, was capped inside the first 20 minutes, when the centre-forward, with admired coolness, trapped the ball and scored one of the best goals I have seen for some years.

These dapper fellows know how to shoot, and they understand also the art of finding their men with neat butterfly touches. The Corinthians eventually won—their goals fell to Tunnington, Osborne and Lewis—they they had to go all the way and discovered in Wong Ki-leung a goalkeeper of exceptional merit.

These men from the Far East gave a display of football sufficient to show that Britain is soon to have another serious international competitor.

Fantastic Names
Perhaps it was the fantastic names of the Chinese team that put the Britishers off the mark. They ought not to have read the programme: it was full of strange hyphenated names that spoke of mystery and magic.

Witness, for instance, the men who scored China's two goals: King Cheung Fung and Wai-Tong Lee; also their best back, Boon-lay Chua.

Their heading was particularly good—and better still the forwards kept the ball studiously on the ground.

Scottish Soccer
Call the Chinese football Scottish and you just about sum it up. Against real Scottish movements—snappy passes from man to man, with the ball never an inch from the ground—some of England's best amateurs were made to look second-rate.

Then in amongst the combined movements there were delightful individual touches and bursts which really thrilled 6,000 people. But slap-dash and aimless kicking is not known in China.

Their Only Defect

The only real trouble with the Chinese seemed to be a lack of system. There were always five forwards up for an attack, and a full quota for defensive work, but they weren't organised forces.

All the defensive weaknesses, however, were more than atoned for by goalkeeper Wong Ki-leung. There won't be a better 'keeping display seen at Highbury this season—and this was the Chinese reserve man.

Two inside forwards would get a place in any English League team. So would the centre-forward, Wai-Tong Lee.

China's goalkeeper was a reserve player, if you please; but he had the skill and acuity to grace the best of our English teams, and the Corinthians though shooting badly at various periods gave him lots of chances.

Islington Corinthians: L. T. Huddle; G. S. Burrell, R. Ellis; S. Easton, E. Tunnington, J. Satchell; E. Collins, J. W. Lewis, J. Osborne, W. Sparks, L. Finch.
China: Ki-leung Fung; Tin-Sang Lee; Soon-lay Chua; Wang-chiu Leung; Ah-Free Chui, Kwok-Wai Lee; Shue-Yick Young, King-Cheung Fung; Wai-Tong Lee (capt.), Keong-Pek Tam, Chen-Wo Chan.

MAN DESERTS WIFE

$75 Allowance Ordered Until Case Heard

L. G. Corderio, residing at Nos. 35 and 37 Johnson Road, was this morning summoned before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy by his wife, Livia Puerza dos Santos Corderio, at present staying at the Empress Hotel, with desertion, wilful neglect and failure to provide reasonable maintenance for her. She also claimed the custody of the children and the payment of the costs incurred through this case.

Mr. J. M. d'Almada Remedios was for the complainant, while Mr. P. H. Kwok appeared for the defendant, who was not present in Court.

The case was fixed for hearing for September 30 at 2.30 p.m., and His Worship made a provisional order for the defendant to pay complainant $75 allowance till then.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

M. Critchley of No. 8 St. John's apartments and J. O. Shepherd of No. 1, Po Shan Road were both fined $15 each by Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Magistracy for allowing their dogs abroad without muzzle or lead on different dates.

W. L. Marshall, of No. 18 The Peak, was this morning summoned before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Magistracy for allowing his dog on the Shek O beach on August 30. He was discharged with a caution. Mr. A. Ribiero, who represented him, said that the dog was tied to a tent and to this Sergeant Appleton agreed, but said that dogs were not allowed on the beaches now, even if they were muzzled or on leads.

Found guilty at a district court-martial last week of a lottery offence, Fus. W. Sandfield, of the 2nd Battalion Royal Welch Fusiliers, was ordered to undergo 28 days' detention in a sentence promulgated yesterday. The accused was charged with being in possession for the purpose of distribution of 2,600 lottery tickets at 91 Lockhart Road on May 9.

No Icebergs Found In Atlantic "Lanes"

Washington—Rear Admiral R. R. Waesche, commandant of the United States Coast Guard, reported last month a puzzling dearth of icebergs in the North Atlantic. For the first time since the guard started keeping an eye on icebergs 23 years ago, no "berg" crossed the danger line this year to menace North Atlantic steamer lanes. Admiral Waesche said: "The danger zone is south of the forty-eighth parallel, an imaginary line extending east and west across the Atlantic Ocean 30 miles north of St. Johns, Newfoundland. The absence of icebergs enabled the guard to wind up its North Atlantic ice patrol on June 9, more than a month earlier than usual."

ARMY CHILDREN AQUATICS

NEXT MONDAY AND FRIDAY

INTER-SCHOOL CHALLENGE TROPHY MAUGURATED

The Annual Swimming Sports of the Army Children's Schools in Hong Kong Area will take place at the V.R.C. swimming pool, Connaught Road, next Monday, (Heats only) at 2.30 p.m. and next Friday, when the finals will be held, commencing at 3 p.m., admission on the latter day being by invitation.

The Sports are held under the patronage of His Excellency, Major-General A. W. Bartholomew, C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., D.S.O., and Mrs. Bartholomew will distribute the prizes at the conclusion of the sports.

Competition is very keen between the Hong Kong and Kowloon Schools for the various trophies, particularly the Championship Flag, presented for annual competition some time ago by Major-General J. W. Sandlands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O.

An innovation this year is the introduction of an Inter-Schools Challenge Cup, open to all Schools in the Colony, each School entering, to furnish one representative who shall be under the age of 14 years (British reckoning) on September 25.

The Challenge Cup itself was presented by Mrs. A. W. Bartholomew, and will be held by the winning School for one year. The event, the first of its kind in recent years, should prove very popular.

while the halves will probably be Willy Read, in the pivotal berth, supported on the right and left flanks by H. J. D. Lowe, who has incidentally returned to the Colony, and G. Sommer.

Sommer As Forward
There is a possibility, however, that Sommer may move up into the attack, in which case either R. A. Bates or Cotesworth will fill the gap.

The forward line will most probably be S. A. Fowler, formerly of the "Y", but who played for the Club for the major part of last season, while Divett, who would have partnered him, is away from the Colony. Norman Mackay, who has played on both wings, is the most likely selection for the inside-right berth, while Owen Hughes will lead the attack, supported on the left by Norman Whitley or G. Sommer, in the inside-left berth, and G. Bond on the left-wing.

It can be seen from the above that the Club will not be greatly weakened by their losses and, in fact, appear to have gained in strength.

Woking.
"I get complaints that he knock women's hats off, breaks windows, and uses bad language"—the Father.

"He's an affectionate little imp"—the Probation Officer.
These two views of a ten-year old Woking boy, said to be out of control of his father and mother, and the Probation Officer, were expressed at Woking recently.

The father said he had thrashed the boy without making any improvement.

The boy, who is the eldest of five children, was ordered to be sent to an approved school.

CHINA EMPORIUM LIMITED

Enters Third Year Of Existence
BARGAINS AND PRIZES TO BE SECURED TO-DAY

To-day the China Emporium, Limited, the newest and one of the most up-to-date departmental stores in the Colony, enters upon its third year of existence, and in celebrating this event the management are offering the purchasing public an opportunity of acquiring bargains and prizes during the day.

A great part of the stock has been reduced in price and in addition the management are giving commemoration coupons to any purchasers of goods to the value of more than one dollar.

Lucky Prize packets will be sold, to suit all pockets, from $1 to $5, and many valuable prizes are to be won, including Radio sets, cameras, gramophones, perfumes, etc., but each buyer is guaranteed that he will receive something which will be equivalent to the amount paid for the chance.

The entrance and the interior of the store have been tastefully decorated and the frontage of the building decorated with lanterns with the name of the firm, in Chinese, in the centre.

During the afternoon special teas will be served in the cafe at a nominal charge.

Business Improving

The China Emporium was officially opened by Sir Shou-son Chow, the chairman, three years ago in the presence of a large and distinguished gathering of European and Chinese residents, and in the course of his speech the chairman said that the motto of the firm would be "Efficiency and Courtesy". A visit to the store at any time bears out that this has been lived up to by this Company.

When the Company was opened Sir Shou-son Chow also said that Hong Kong was passing through a general depression, but an official of the Company stated this morning that as far as his Company was concerned, things were good and business was improving.

HIGH MINISTERS CONFER IN POLAND

Warsaw, To-day.—The Inspector-General of the Polish Army, Marshal Rydz-Smigly, the Premier, the Deputy Premier and the Foreign Minister, Colonel Beck, were received together in audience by the President of the Republic, Marshal Moscicki. The discussion lasted four hours, and dealt with the foreign policy of Poland and Marshal Rydz-Smigly's visit to Paris.—Trans-Ocean Service.

AUDITORS AND ACCOUNTANTS

New Association Formed

TO PROTECT INTERESTS OF TWO PROFESSIONS

One of the most recent commercial institutions to be organized in the Colony is the Association of Chinese Accountants and Auditors, which was inaugurated yesterday under the Chairmanship of Mr. Thomas C. K. Lee, Secretary of the Accountants and Auditors Institute, at the St. Francis Hotel.

The following officials were elected for the ensuing year:—Messrs. Thomas C. K. Lee, F.A.A., F.I.L.S. (President), Li Tat-see and Mok Gan (Vice-presidents), Jan Kwai-yuen (Treasurer), Tam Kwai-bon (Accountant), Tang Chi-cheung (Auditor) and Kwan Man-yu and Alfred Fong (Joint Inspectors).

This Association is the first of its kind to be organized among Chinese accountants and auditors of the Colony, and it is the aim of the organizers that the institution should be incorporated with the local Government as well as with the Nanking Government of China.

Main Object

One of the main objects of the Association is to promote public recognition of the professions of accountants and auditors among the Chinese and also to promote and protect the mutual interests of its members.

The members of the Association are divided into three sections, styled respectively "Fellow", "Associate" and "Honorary Member."

No person under the age of 21 years will be admitted as a member.

The temporary address of the Association is No. 26, Des Voeux Road, Central.

Anyone interested in the above Association may apply for further information to the President, Mr. Thomas C. K. Lee, who is the senior member of the firm of Messrs. Thomas C. K. Kuen and Company, Incorporated Accountants and Auditors (Australia).

THEY MADE HISTORY ON THE SEVEN SEAS

scale as that which he built for presentation to Sir Edward Evans.

Marine Paintings

Not only model ships but some fine marine paintings were lined up for inspection at the show. They included a picture by Mr. G. W. Pilkington, whose "Wet Towage," a scene off East London, was recently hung on the line at the Royal Academy, and an interesting picture by Mr. Arthur Elliott, of a model of the Golder Hind in the setting of a study, with old maps and books about the sea.

There is something fascinating and particularly reminiscent of "old salts" and sea yarns in the tiny models of square-rigged ships erected inside narrow necked bottles. Some, with even the scenery inserted behind them, are real works of art. Needless to say this bottled spirit of the sea was represented.

In model ships—whether sail or steam—there is a great deal more than "stick and string." In their hulls is much of the world's history; they symbolise man's progress and his spirit of adventure. The original of even the giant liner Queen Mary was just a model in a tank! The Cape Town club might well adopt the motto given by Queen Elizabeth to Sir Francis Drake: Sic parvis magna.

OBITUARY

Mrs. W. Darby Passes Away

SALVATION ARMY WORKER

The death occurred at the Matilda Hospital yesterday, of Mrs. (Brigadier) Darby, wife of Brigadier William Darby, General Secretary of the Salvation Army in South China.

The deceased lady, who was 51 years of age, arrived in Hong Kong with her husband in June, from Shanghai, where they had spent six years, prior to which they were in other North China centres for ten years. Mrs. Darby was a native of Birmingham, England.

The late Mrs. Darby was taken ill a fortnight ago whilst on holiday at Cheung Chau island, and her condition became gradually worse, necessitating her admission to hospital last Thursday. Besides her husband, she leaves three children, one of whom is in Shanghai and the other two in Hong Kong. Much sympathy will be felt for them in their bereavement.

The Funeral

The funeral took place at Happy Valley last night, the last rites being conducted by Col. V. E. Rolfe, Territorial Commander, who had made a special journey from Canton. Prayers and testimonies were made by Mrs. Col. Rolfe, Capt. P. Stanley, Adjutant D. Brazier, Adjutant and Mrs. Ponting.

Hymns were sung at the graveside.

The chief mourners were Brigadier Darby, and the daughter and son. Other mourners were: Capt. Scmike, Capt. Skelton, Captain Klockers, Lieut. Thompson, Lieut. Amos, Mr. Fern, Mr. Hearn, Rev. and Mrs. Pennington, Mrs. and Miss Reiton, Mr. and Mrs. D. Mackenzie, Rev. and Mrs. Grant, of the Pentecost Mission, Mrs. Burnside, Mrs. Beekill, Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau, Mr. D. Wood, Mr. T. Bolt, Misses Bolt, Mr. D. Tottenham, Mr. T. Perrin, Mr. R. Lee, and other comrades.

Among the beautiful floral tributes was one from the husband and children.

LAID TO REST

Funeral Of Mr. W. Sanderson

MANY PRESENT AT GRAVESIDE

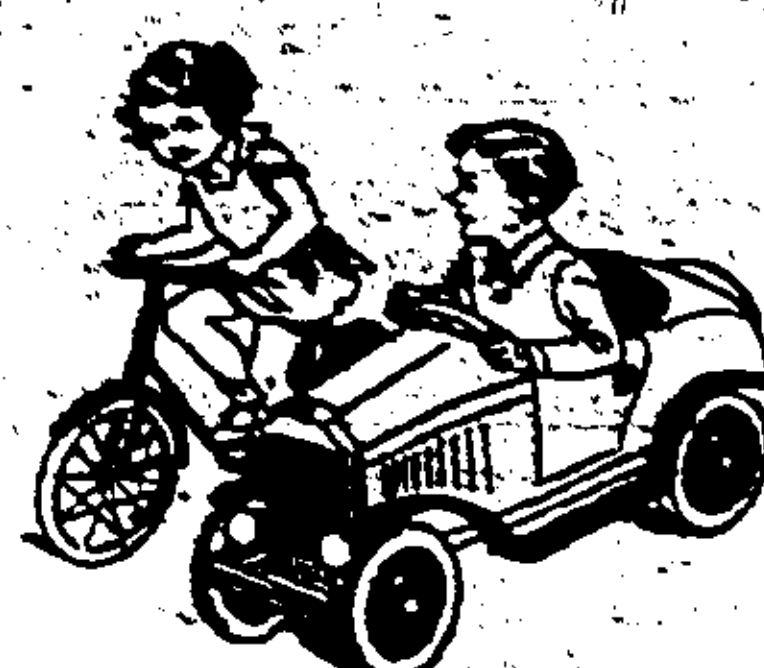

The funeral of Mr. William Sanderson, Superintendent Engineer of the Indo-China Steam Navigation Company, whose death was recorded in our issues of yesterday, took place at Happy Valley yesterday afternoon, a service in the cemetery chapel preceding the interment. The Rev. K. MacKenzie Dow officiated.

Amongst the many friends who gathered to pay their last respects were:—

Messrs. J. E. Anderson, R. B. Bell, Capt. Bates, R. Batem, H. Beck, M. B. Bell, T. H. G. Brayfield, F. F. Clarke, R. L. Craig, H. C. Cooper, J. Crookdale, E. Cock, R. H. Cameron.

A. A. Duncan, J. H. S. Duncan, R. Fox, H. H. Fantham, M. Ferguson, W. G. Gillies, N. Garland, W. Greig, M. Henderson, F. J. Hunt, G. Hill, E. L. Hosie, F. C. Hall, A. W. Ingram, F. W. Kirby, D. Kossick.

G. K. Labrum, W. Lambert, R. Lapsley, W. S. Minshall, D. Mackenzie, G. H. MacDonald, A. C. MacDougal, W. C. Murray, D. McLennan, J. Marshall, R. Morrison, G. N. Mitchell, T. A. Mitchell, A. MacAlpine, A. Mc Cormick, G. Pickering.

FULL OF LIFE!

Healthy children are happy children full of life and high spirits, and whilst few entirely escape the ills to which they are exposed in their tender years, the dangers of such ills can be very considerably reduced if promptly checked by correct treatment.

Among the commoner ailments of childhood are constipation, indigestion, colic, colds and croup, worms and teething troubles. A remedy which has been used with conspicuous success for the past forty years in dealing with these troubles is Baby's Own Tablets.

The prescription of a medical child-specialist, Baby's Own Tablets are made from the finest ingredients, and are guaranteed to be entirely free from opiates, narcotics or drugs which are liable in any way to cause harm to the delicate organs of the young. This is but one of the reasons for the great popularity of the tablets with parents in many parts of the world. Pleasant in taste, children like them, so they are easy to give, and accurate dosing is assured by the lozenge form in which they are put up. From all chemists.

Cinema Notes From The Theatres"HUMAN CARGO"—KING'S

A vicious new crime ring that could not be smashed and a startling new mystery that could not be solved—until a girl who wanted thrills and a reporter who wanted headlines plunged into the exciting plot and, in a series of breath-taking events, smashed the new menace that threatens the nation.

That is the high-tension entertainment promised in this picture, with Claire Trevor and Brian Donlevy heading the cast, which includes Alan Dinehart, Ralph Morgan, Helen Troy and Rita Cansino. Miss Trevor is seen as a debutante who is determined to have her share of excitement. She obtains a job on Dinehart's newspaper and a night club with Ace reporter Brian Donlevy.

That first story is almost Claire's last, for before the evening ends she is eye-witness to a murder, is in the midst of a thrilling fight, and is mistakenly arrested and forced to spend the night in gaol.

She is more than game for her new job, however, and to help Donlevy trap the criminals he is trailing, she accompanies him to Vancouver, where they obtain passage on a boat that is illegally transporting another group of aliens to America.

Before the film ends Miss Trevor goes through a set of experiences thrilling enough for any daredevil or explorer. The ending shows Miss Trevor, out-of-breath, falling willingly into Donlevy's arms.

Diana B. Blythe, daughter of John Barrymore and the present Mrs. Harrison Tweed, who was Barrymore's first wife, is shown in the costume which brought her a prize in the 'Gay Nineties' event at the recent Southampton, Long Island, horse show.

cast are Eddie Acuff, Henry O'Neill, Egon Brecher, Eleanor Wesselhoef, Joseph Crehan, Olin Howland, William Pawley, Ronnie Cosby and George Brekston.

"TILL WE MEET AGAIN"—
QUEEN'S THEATRE

The heartaches of lovers, torn apart by their devotion to their respective countries, are dramatically brought to the screen in this picture, which shows two happy lovers, stars of the theatre in London, Herbert Marshall and his Viennese sweetheart, Gertrude Michael, whose wedding plans are wrecked by the declaration of war. Marshall, as a loyal Englishman, joins his colours and Miss Michael, who, unknown to her sweetheart, is a member of the German Secret Service, places herself under the orders of her commanding officer.

Marshall is assigned to the British Intelligence Service and enters Germany, disguised as a German soldier. Miss Michael is also stationed in Germany, and when, accidentally, she meets her lover, realises that her love for him is so great that she cannot betray him.

Unconsciously, however, she gives him away to the German authorities, as an English spy. Then she forgets her loyalty to her country, and risks death before a firing squad to save him.

The way in which the sweethearts outwit the German agents and make their successful escape across the border into a happier world of peace and love furnishes the unforgettably thrilling climax. Lionel Atwill, Rod LaRocque and Frank Reicher head the excellent supporting cast.

"IT HAPPENED IN NEW YORK"—
MAJESTIC THEATRE

One of the most charming and swiftly delightful screen dramas of the year is this Universal production featuring Lyle Talbot, Gertrude Michael, Heather Angel and Hugh O'Connell.

The amusing adventures of a highly temperamental movie star who comes to New York for the first time and, becomes involved with a rough-and-ready taxi driver, forms the intriguing basis of this story. Its swift moving pace, brilliant dialogue and hilarious comedy situations, make this one of the most outstanding pictures of the year.

Alan Croeland, one of Hollywood's "ace" directors and with a long list of screen triumphs to his credit, directed this film.

FIRE AT LONELY CASTLE

Stornoway fire brigade made a 30-mile journey last month over mountain roads to a fire which broke out at Ambhuinadh Castle, where Sir James Barrie learned of the old legend which is the theme of "Mary Rose"

BRIDGE NOTES

UNNECESSARY
BIDS

By Ely Culbertson

Bidding, being a form of conversation, is guided by the rules of rhetoric. Redundancy is inexcusable and, in the case of bidding, at least, it often is expensive. When either partner has given or extracted all the information he requires, there can be no point, when a slam is not contemplated, in showing a new and inferior suit. Such a course cannot benefit any one but the opponents, who will be delighted to take full advantage of the information given them. In today's hand, East's defence of a vulnerable game contract was made comparatively simple by a completely unnecessary bid previously made by the declarer.

North, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

NORTH
S. Q 10 4
H. K Q
D. K J 10 9 2
C. K Q 4

WEST EAST
S. K J 9 S. 5 3
H. J 10 9 7 6 4 H. A 8 5 2
D. Q 8 3 D. A 7 6
C. 5 C. J 9 8 2

SOUTH
S. A 8 7 6 2
H. 3
D. 5 4
C. A 10 7 6 3

The bidding:
North East South West
1D. Pass 1S. 2H. (1)
2S. 3H. 4C. (2) Pass
4S. (final bid).

(1) Not a good vulnerable overcall.

(2) Since South has no serious slam aspirations, there is no point in showing the club suit.

West, on lead, decided he might jeopardise a possible club trick in partner's hand by opening his singleton and, anyway, it seemed likely that he had two natural trump tricks. So he led the jack of hearts. East won with the ace and took stock. It was apparent that only one heart trick was possible for his side, and probable that they would have to be content with only one diamond trick, also. Where could he pick up the other two tricks necessary for the contract's defeat? Well, considering West's lack of heart tops, it was highly likely that he held a high spade honour for quick control of the suit. Also, if South's four club bid had been based on a five card suit (probable, since North-South were not using asking bids) West would have only one club. Therefore, the thing to do was to remove this club while West kept trump control and he, East, retained the diamond ace for entry. On this good reasoning, he led a club. Dummy won with the king and cashed the heart king for a diamond discard, after which the ace and another trump were played. West hopped up with his king, put East on lead with the diamond ace, and ruffed the club return, as per plan.

Inasmuch as East was a good player, it is quite possible that he would have used the same defensive plan had South not bid clubs. But it cannot be denied that South's bid made the defence much easier.

ZOO ELEPHANT RUNS AWAY

Carrying Children
On Back

FRIGHTENED BY A LOUD-SPEAKER

Nogay Ko, an elephant at the London Zoo, which has safely carried hundreds on her back round the gardens, suddenly bolted last month and provided a few moments of intense excitement.

Carrying a load of children and some grown-ups, the elephant was walking past the Pets' Corner when the loud-speaker used to advertise the Corner and the photographic studio blared out.

Either this noise or an exposure flash from the studio frightened the elephant, for she started violently, turned round and bolted to the Elephant House along the route she takes every day after work.

Trembling With Fright

She raced along the Broad Walk and through the tunnel. The on-lookers held their breath, for there was doubt whether the tunnel was high enough to take an elephant with a loaded howdah on her back.

Fortunately there was just enough space for the children, and the adults had the presence of mind to duck their heads before the tunnel was entered.

Nogay Ko made straight for her own den in the Elephant House and there she stopped, still trembling with fright. Although her passengers were scared, nobody was hurt. The Gardens were not crowded, and nobody was in the way of the bolting elephant.

DEVIL'S ISLAND ESCAPE

Man At Large In Trinidad

Port of Spain (Trinidad).—Police were recently hunting all over Trinidad for a convict who escaped from Devil's Island, the French penal settlement, six weeks before.

The convict, with three others, had had an adventurous trip across the open sea and, in accordance with the custom of the Trinidad authorities, a boat was prepared and provisioned for them to go on their way.

The boat was made ready, but when the police went to fetch the four men from the Salvation Army shelter at which they had been staying, they found that one of the men, Jean Louis Leotaud, had disappeared.

His companions said that he had made a dash for the hills surrounding Port of Spain.

EXCITING SHORT STORIES

For Those Who Like
Thrills

Those who like thrills will find the new Faber and Faber collection, "My Most Exciting Story," excellent value for money. Twenty writers have chosen their own most exciting tale, and the result ranges from a ghost story by H. R. Wakefield, with the M. E. Jamesish title, "He cometh and he passeth by"—(and I can assure you the story is as hair-raising as the title)—to "Haru Pasha," a light-hearted anecdote in which Mr. Sax Rohmer pulls the reader's leg prettily well out of its socket.

Mr. A. E. W. Mason contributes "The Brown Book," a tense little drama of spies and blackmail. Mr. C. S. Forester's "Between Eight and Eight" tells of a murderer's escape from the condemned cell. Other contributors are Messrs. Beeding, Bridges, Graeme, Horler and Masterman.

But the poisoned pineapple (or whatever the thriller-writer's first prize should be) is won by Mr. Temple Ellis. His "Third Player Plays High" contains just that extra inch of tension, that breath-catching atmosphere achieved by linking the horrible to the familiar, which is most calculated to send us looking uneasily into the dark corners of the room before we go to bed.

KILLED BY FALLING WALL

James Bailey, aged 75, of Stoke-on-Trent, was killed recently when one of the walls of his house collapsed and buried him.

EXPENDITURE UP, REVENUE DOWN

British Exchequer
Returns

London, To-day.

Exchequer returns show that total ordinary revenue amounts to £258,946,769, as compared with £263,617,680 at the corresponding date of last year.

Great activity in overseas trade is reflected in the total receipts from customs and excise, which are £139,074,000 as against £134,497,000 at this time last year. Total ordinary expenditure is £539,641,304, as compared with £535,843,269 at the corresponding date of 1935.—British Wireless Service.

HUGE EMPIRE EXHIBITION AT JOHANNESBURG

15,000 people who attended the ceremony. These included old pioneers who had not visited the land for 20 years.

General Hertzog, African Premier, welcomed the visitors, and the recorded speeches of Mr. Stanley Baldwin and the Prime Ministers of the other Dominions were heard.

Some 3,000,000 visitors are expected before the Exhibition closes its doors, and arrangements have been made for visits by large numbers of school-children from all over the Union. The United Kingdom Government pavilion is dedicated to the people of the Union, as a tribute of esteem by the people of the United Kingdom.—British Wireless Service.

NEW LOCARNO MEETING

preparation. It was with the idea of allowing plenty of time for diplomatic exchanges that the British Government tentatively suggested the second week of October as the date for the conference, which they hoped would be generally suitable and which they had reason to think would be acceptable to the German Government.

DANGER OF DRIFT

Since the preliminary exchanges are to be made through diplomatic channels the League meetings in the next few weeks do not involve any interruption of work, and that date therefore was thought to leave ample time for preparing ground. There is a strong feeling in London that the prospective date is among the first essentials to be agreed by the participating Powers if the danger of drift, which would be most regrettable in the present state of Europe, is to be avoided.

The proposal of His Majesty's Government for the meeting to take place before the end of October has been found agreeable by the French and Belgian Governments, and it is understood that these Governments would also favour London as the meeting-place. The German Government, in what is regarded as an interim reply, has expressed the opinion that a meeting in October would provide insufficient time for the continuation of the preparatory discussions. The Italian Government, whose reply was delivered by the Italian Ambassador, Signor Grandi, to Sir Robert Vansittart, Permanent Under-Secretary, at the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon, in thanking British Government for the invitation, added that before the fixing of the actual date for the meeting they thought diplomatic exchanges

4-DAY VOYAGE LASTS 14

Girl's Ordeal In Schooner

SHORT RATIONS IN DAMAGED SHIP

The motor auxiliary schooner Six Sisters, 131 tons, put into Great Yarmouth last month after having been a fortnight out from Grimsby owing to bad weather.

She had on board Rex Guy, of Wolverhampton, the owner, W. R. Evans, John Bruton and Miss Rose Stokes, aged 20, of Grimsby. The boat set out on August 3 for Fowey, Cornwall—a voyage of three or four days—but lost her gear. A jury mast was rigged, sails were made from canvas and a makeshift retort was manufactured with which drinking water was distilled from sea water. The party ran out of tobacco and smoked tea-leaves.

Short Of Food

"We missed the Dowsing Sands by half a cable," said Mr. Guy. "Eventually we were forced to beat up and down in heavy seas off the Belgian coast. It was like the Flying Dutchman trying to get round the Cape."

"We have been very short of food. This morning we had our last oats with flour and bicarbonate of soda, which was meant for indigestion."

Miss Stokes made light of the adventure. "I was on board for the experience," she said, "and I hope to go to sea again. I was not really frightened. When there was no food we played the gramophone."

LOSSES MADE ON SHARES

Specialist's £27,330
Liabilities

The statutory first meeting of creditors was held in Bankruptcy-buildings, Carey-street, W.C., last month under a receiving order recently made against Reginald Hearn, physician, of Wimpole-street.

Mr. S. W. Hood, the Official Receiver, presided.

A statement was submitted showing gross liabilities of £27,330 of which £20,000 are expected to rank, and estimated assets of £4,791, apart from doubtful book debts £24,463.

Bad Speculations

Dr. Hearn, who has practised as a specialist for many years, attributed his insolvency to unfortunate speculations, chiefly in shares and options of coal and allied industries.

In his deficiency account he estimated his losses (unpaid) by speculating at £10,958, in addition to which he returned losses on "differences" and sales of stocks and shares estimated to balance the account at £7,420.

Dr. Hearn's estate was left in the hands of the Official Receiver.

ROYAL FREEMEN'S TRIBUTE

The Duke of York, the Duke of Gloucester, the Duke of Abercorn, Governor of Northern Ireland, and Viscount Craigavon, Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, who are all honorary freemen of Londonderry, have applied to the city corporation for permission to erect a tablet in Londonderry Guildhall to the memory of the late Sir Henry Miller.

should continue. The date for the conference remains therefore a matter for further discussion.—British Wireless Service.

He "Fainted" In The Street Once Too Often

Windsor. — William Joseph Spackman, aged 52, of Petersham-road, Richmond, who was alleged to have obtained food and lodging from several hospitals by feigning illness, was at Windsor last month sentenced to three months' hard labour. He was charged as a suspected person under the Prevention of Crimes Act.

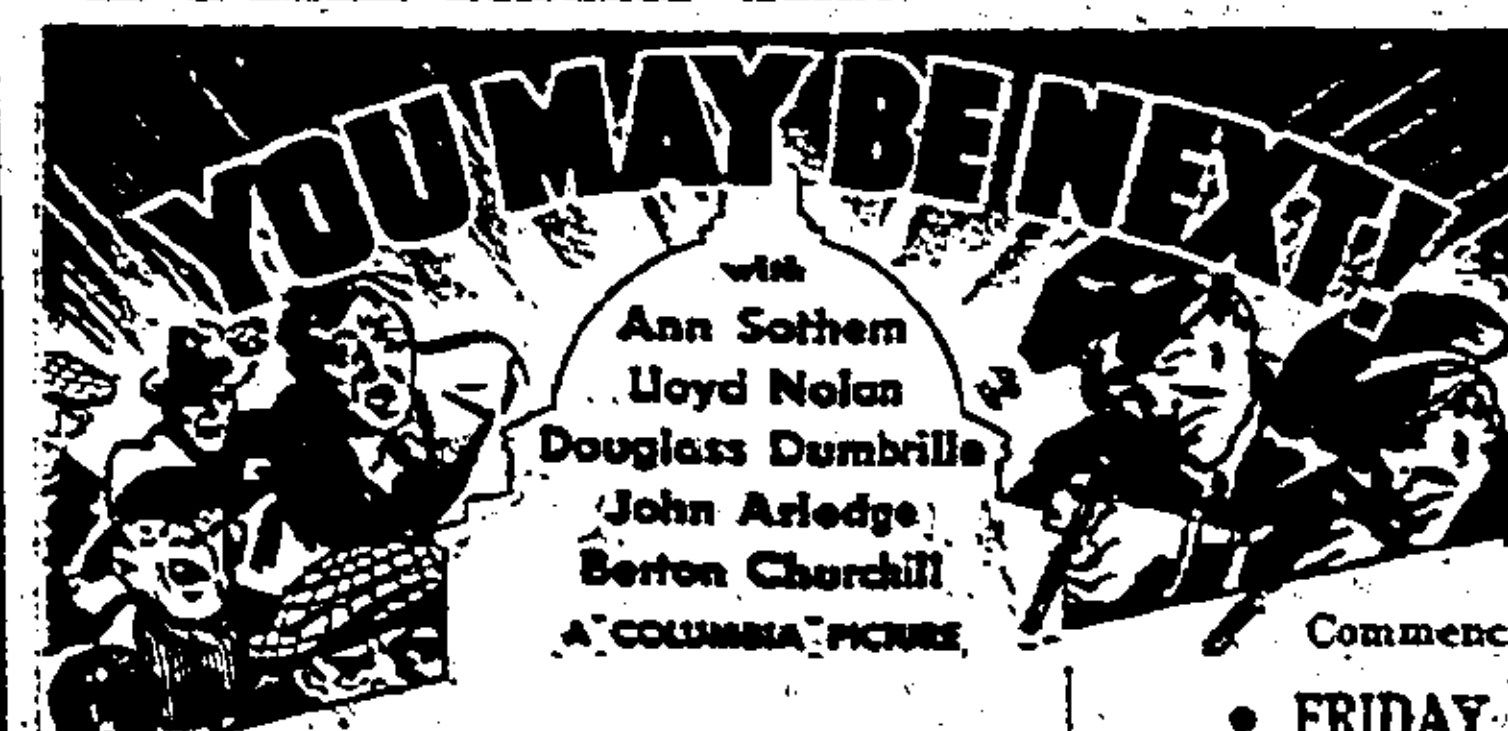

Sydney Martin, of Windsor, said he saw Spackman collapse in the street in what appeared to be a fainting fit. He carried him into a house, where Spackman asked to be sent to hospital, and an ambulance was fetched. Spackman gave his name as Richardson, and said he lived at Uxbridge.

Dr. William Gadd, of Windsor Hospital, said that he kept close observation on Spackman and came to the conclusion that he was malingering.

Chief Constable Carter said that Spackman had been involved in similar incidents at hospitals at Isleworth and Lewisham, where he gave different names.
